BASE BALL CLUB
Has Been Organized Here to Play Independent Organizations.

That Paris will have base ball during the remainder of the summer, and that the local club will meet some of the best semi-professional clubs to be secured, is shown by the activity on the part of a number of local enthusiasts during the past several days.

Yesterday afternoon final arrangements were completed for the organization of a club. A petition has been in circulation for several days and a sufficient sum has been raised to insure the success of the undertaking.

The matter of organizing the club will be taken up immediately, and some of the best local talent will be employed in the lineup. It is the plan to book games with some of the best semi-professional teams out of Cincinnati and Louisville. Practice will begin in the next few days and the home boys will make an effort to get in condition within the next two weeks when they will meet the strong Wiedemann team from Cincinnati.

Much enthusiasm is manifested by those who have taken the initiative and they have met with much encouragement from the followers of the game in this city. The result will be that Paris will have an organization of which it can be justly proud.

Col. Clay Resigns From Board.
At a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the State University held in Lexington Wednesday, Col. C. M. Clay, of Bourbon county, a member of the Board, tendered his resignation, on the ground of ill health and as he insisted his resignation be accepted, Hon. J. N. Camden, of Woodford county, was named as his successor. Judge T. L. Edelin, of Frankfort, was chosen to take Col. Clay's place on the Executive Committee.

Col. Clay has been in declining health for about a year, following an illness of pneumonia during the early part of last fall, from the effects of which he has not fully recovered. He recently returned from Florida, where he spent the winter with the hope of recuperating his strength. Owing to his advanced age he has practically given up business activities, recently retiring as a member of the State Racing Commission and disposed of his thoroughbred holdings to abandon the turf after many years at the game.

Purchases Wool.
Mr. Joseph Houston, of near this city, purchased this week from Mr. Miller Ward 556 fleeces of wool at a private price.

✓ Feature Act at the Paris Grand.
Pronounced by managers from all parts of the country as being the most wonderful exhibition of the control of electricity, W. A. Quigg & Co., will present their feature act at the Grand to-night and to-morrow night. Featured in this act is Miss Mabel Burnell, known from coast to coast as "The Electrical Venus," the perfect woman and queen manipulator of electricity. While the act itself is an educational treat, it is not, however, without its comedy situation and as a whole an intensely amusing, interesting and mystifying.

Aside from this Mr. Wahl will sing one of the latest and most popular songs, and the two reel Bison feature "Indian Blood" will be shown. First show at 7 and second at 9 o'clock. The great trick picture "The Newly Wed's Baby" will be shown to-morrow night.

Following the custom for Saturday to give the best, the Columbia has arranged a picture program that is bound to please the lovers of the silent drama. A Key-Bee feature entitled "The Will of the Wisp," is produced on the usual broad scale of the Kay-Bee picture and is intensely interesting throughout the entire two reels. The picture, while it shows stirring scenes of battle is entirely different from the usual war or Western stories and must be seen to be appreciated. One other good comedy picture will make a show that will be unequalled in the straight picture houses.

Shoot at Big Pond Today.
A number of local sportsmen will go to Big Pond range on the farm of Mr. Thomas Henry Clay, Jr., near Austerlitz today to enjoy a practice shoot after which they will fish in the pond of Mr. Clay, which abounds with game fish.

Fiscal Court in Regular Session.

Dr. Frank Knox was elected parochial physician for the Ruddies Mills precinct. Squires Burris and Thomason were appointed a committee to have the Roseberry pike surveyed and built. Squires Shropshire and Lloyd were appointed a committee to have the Shropshire pike surveyed and built. The sum of $150 was appropriated for use on the Frank Shropshire pike provided a like amount was raised by J. O. Ralls and the sum of $1,100 was ordered paid to Louie Bower for repairing three bridges.

The court elected Dr. C. B. Smith a member of the Bourbon County Health Board. County Treasurer S. E. Bedford was ordered to borrow $5,000 for

TRADING AT HOME BENEFITS THE BUYER.

[Lexington Leader.]

Of all the problems and perplexities that beset the Lexington merchants, there is none so baffling and at the same time so exasperating as the practice of fraud with the itinerant merchants who periodically visit Lexington.

Within the past month out of town merchants have been having displays at some one of the hotels in Lexington which they do more or less during the year, and their show rooms are crowded with Lexington people, who without malicious intent, do Lexington merchants a great deal of harm. Last week the Leader received an advertisement from a prominent Louisville dry goods firm announcing a display of goods to be held at a Lexington hotel, which they wished inserted in the Leader and for which they were willing to pay the highest price the Leader charges for advertising. But the advertisement was refused by the business manager of the Leader, because he realized what it would mean to the Lexington merchants, and knew that the display of ready to wear garments bought in Lexington at a less cost than the foreign merchant could afford to sell them, as he has in addition to his regular expenses, the extra expense of travel and hotel bills for the employees traveling with the display.

These foreign merchants do not pay one dollar of Lexington's taxes. They do not subscribe one dollar to the many charities which Lexington merchants are daily asked to subscribe to, and to which they always generously respond. They do not pay one dollar out to any Lexington person for salaries. They come to Lexington, stay two or three days, and depart, carrying away $1,000 or $1,500, and never spend outside of their hotel bills one cent toward the upkeep of the city or for the benefit of any citizen.

The problem is not peculiar to Lexington. It besets every city which has a prosperous, discriminating class of buyers and a progressive, accommodating, enterprising class of merchants.

If the money which is sent out of Lexington to buy goods were merely to buy articles which cannot be obtained here, or to secure values materially better than a dollar will buy here, the merchants would have no cause to complain.

The above statement is putting the case very clearly and very mildly. Every business man in Lexington pays for the privilege of supplying the people with their useful needs. He employs clerks and other help from among the local home people. He contributes in taxes, rents, salaries and donations, an immense sum every year to the welfare and prosperity of the community, and his only return is through the volume of his business. There are goods to be obtained by mail, at prices far below the prices offered by local dealers. This does not mean that the local merchant is being undersold. It merely means that if the local merchant carried goods of this quality on his shelves, where they could be seen before purchase was made, they would lie forever unsold. The Lexington merchant has the same access to the wholesale markets that any dealers of reputable goods have, and he cannot afford to put in his stock goods that will not bear inspection, or which when sold, will bring discredit upon the business which he is striving to build up.

The home merchant is ever ready to meet your urgent necessity. When the eye is caught by the invitation to visit a display or inspect a special line of shoes, dresses, waists, hats, etc., is not the home merchant entitled to an opportunity to meet the new demand? That is all he asks.

The reader can readily see advocates of buying at home are reaching out daily in their effort to attract patrons from adjoining towns. That which is applicable to Lexington can also be applied to Paris. Our merchants are capable of competing with the merchants of Lexington in the quality of goods, cheapness and in quantity of stock.

Follow the policy advocated by the Lexington newspaper an BUY AT HOME, thereby helping home enterprises and keeping money among home people. Few if any Lexington people spend their money in Paris. Why should the people of this city turn their money into Lexington enterprises or spend it with Lexington merchants, where it will remain. Trading at home benefits the home people as well as the home merchant.

Can't Keep It Secret.

The splendid work of Chamberlain's Tablets is daily becoming more widely known. No such grand remedy for stomach and liver troubles has ever been known. For sale by all dealers.

ONLY ONE BEST.

Paris People Give Credit Where Credit Is Due.

People of Paris who suffer with weak kidneys and bad backs want a kidney remedy that can be depended upon. Doan's Kidney Pills is a medicine for the kidneys only, and one that is backed by willing testimony of Paris people. Here's a case:

M. Holleran, 200 W. Seventh street, Paris, Ky., says: "Sometimes the passage of the kidney secretions were real painful. I had backaches, too. I used much medicine, but was not benefited until I took Doan's Kidney Pills. They soon made me feel better and stronger."

Mr. Holleran is only one of many Paris people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. Holleran had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50 cents at all stores. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, New York. "When your back is lame—Remember the name."

Dickens' Hold on Public.

More Speed.
A group of clubmen were discussing the other night the speed and competition of modern city life—the grinding subways, the standing lunches, and the "parlors" where you get your hat cleaned while your shoes are being shined. "For all that," remarked one of the group—a well-known patent lawyer—"I was surprised to find a downtown barber shop with this sign in big letters over the door:
"Quick shave—while you wait."

Two facts illustrate the unabated hold that Dickens has on the public: A large attended exhibition of Dickensiana, has been held at the Grolier Club, New York City, at which the only considerable section of "Pickwick" MS. known to exist was to be seen at the other end of the world, members of the ill-fated Capt. Scott's expedition are reported to have solaced their weeks of imprisonment in an igloo by reading aloud each day

BEES KILLED 200 PULLETS

Released Honey Gatherers Also Give Auto Party a Hot Time in California.

Porterville, Cal.—Two hundred pullets belonging to W. F. Weems, a poultry raiser in the Plano district, were stung to death when a swarm of bees attacked them. The bees, which belong to the Kern County Land company, are brought to this district every year during the orange blossom season.

Besides the chickens which were killed, several scores of others were so badly stung that they will also die.

After the bees had attacked the chickens they continued down the road and attacked an automobile party. The bees were so thick that after the car had emerged from the swarm the tonneau was covered with them.

Dog's Tail Pulled Trigger.

Pittsburg, Kan.—James McFall went hunting a few days ago. His dog got into a row with another dog and soon there was a fight. McFall set the rifle down, held one hand over the muzzle and watched the fight. One of the dogs switched his tail and hit the trigger of the rifle. Doctors have not yet found the bullet in McFall's hand, but there is a hole where it went in.

Remedy for the Foot Rot.
Commissioner of Agriculture J. W. Newman received a telegram a few days ago from A. D. Waldo, of Sterling, Col., containing what Mr. Waldo asserts is a sure cure for foot rot and the foot and mouth disease, if applied when either disease first appears in the hoof of a domestic animal.
Commissioner Newman gives out the remedy for what it is worth, not being able to vouch for its efficacy by experiment.

The remedy is eight ounces of butter of antimony and sixty drops of turpentine.

PARIS NEEDS Y. M. C. A.

Only Two Other Places as Large in Kentucky Without Buildings.

Building.

Besides Paris there are only two places in Kentucky with the population of Paris which have no Young Men's Christian with well equipped buildings. There are at least six places of less population than Paris which have successful Associations, owning their own buildings.

It is the concensus of opinion of the majority of the citizens of Paris that there is no place in Kentucky that needs a Y. M. C. A. more than this city and county. There is not a single definite effort being made to safeguard the young men and boys every day in the week. When a boy is not in his home there is no place for him to go, except to questionable places.

It is practically inevitable that a boy growing up in Paris forms the habit of drinking liquor, gambling, smoking or keeping bad company.

The boys of Paris have boundless energies. Yet these energies are being spent recklessly, with but little thought of an efficient life. No direction is given to these exuberances of our youth. Such an institution as the Y. M. C. A., which directs rather than represses energy, is needed more than anything else. It's no wonder that the boys of Paris are learning to drink whiskey and gamble. A town sometimes goes so far as to have a moral chaos. When a country boy comes to town what have we to offer him except the street, the poolroom and the saloon? Is there a single place in Paris he can make his headquarters and be sure he is in good company? One trip to town has ruined many a red-blooded country boy. Where have the young men connected with the railroad as office men, civil engineers, etc., to spend their evenings under good influences?

The young men of Paris and Bourbon county want a Y. M. C. A. Think what it would mean to them to have an Association with its various club features, swimming pool, gymnasium, reading room, educational and Bible classes, and the many features continually being promoted by a Christian secretary and physical director—men who have a keen appreciation of the restlessness of youth and the fact that the Y. M. C. A. is not a hot house, but a place to make boys and men strong physically, mentally and morally. Is there a community in the State more able than Paris and Bourbon county to care for its boys?

Decrease in County School Census.

It is estimated by the clerical force in the Department of Education at Frankfort that the school census this year will show a decrease of approximately 10,000 from last year's census. A decrease has been expected as the result of the close scrutiny of returns and the requirement that the returns be made on slips signed by the parent or guardian of the children, and the expectation is supported by returns from the fifty-one counties, so far reported, showing a decrease of 3,276. Forty-four of the counties showed a total loss of 5,074, and seventeen a total increase of 1,798. No city returns are included in the list.

Bourbon county for 1912 had a total of 3,730 children of the school age while the census for 1913 is 3,530.

MATRIMONIAL NOTESDICKEY-KELLEY.

—Miss Evelyn Dickey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Dickey, of this city, and Mr. George A. Kelley, of Detroit, Mich., were married Wednesday in Covington. Friends from Cynthiana who witnessed the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. John T. Reynolds, Jr., Miss Anna May Addams, Mr. Robert H. Rees and Mr. Tom Moore, of Paris. The bride wore a handsome coat suit of blue. She is a lovely and attractive girl, a favorite in social circles in Cynthiana and in every way charming. Mr. and Mrs. Dickey recently moved to this city from Cynthiana. Mr. Kelly is a young lawyer of Detroit, where they will make their future home.

MOORE-WOODS.

The marriage of Miss Mary Bright Moore to Mr. Wallace Woods was solemnized Wednesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Moore in Winchester, in the presence of only the immediate relatives of the couple. The ceremony was performed by Rev. William Cumming.

The bride is the only daughter of the home, and is one of the loveliest young ladies in Winchester. Mr. Woods is the only child of his parents. He has been teller at the People's State Bank for some time, and is a young man of admirable character. He is a nephew of Messrs. J. H. and James Stivers, and Mrs. Albert Burley, of this city, and Mr. S. H. Stivers, of Lexington.

SALOSHIN-GREENGARD.

A surprise wedding occurred on Wednesday at high noon when Miss Essie Saloshin became the bride of Mr. Benjaminine Greengard, of Binghamton, New York. The engagement of the couple was announced some time ago, but the plans of the wedding were kept a secret, only the members of the bride's family knowing of the date the marriage would take place.

The bride, who is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Saloshin, was becomingly attired in a gown of white voile with a corsage bouquet of white roses. The groom is a young traveling man and has made many friends in this city where he has been a frequent visitor during the several months.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Saloshin on Pleasant street where the wedding took place was pretty in its decorations of pink and white carnations. The parlor in which the ceremony was performed was softly illuminated with pink candles.

Rev. Jacob Milvener, of Cincinnati, said the impressive Jewish ceremony in the presence of only the immediate families of the contracting parties, after which an elaborate seven course dinner was served. The wedding colors, pink and white were carried out in the table decorations.

Mr. and Mrs. Greengard left on an afternoon train for New York where they will make their future home.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES

Of Paris High School Held at Auditorium
Last Night.

The commencement exercises of the Paris High School were held last night at the Public School building in the presence of one of the largest audiences that has ever been in attendance on a like occasion. The eight members of the class received their degrees following an excellent program, which was carried out in the fullest detail.

The exercises opened with the invocation by Rev. J. S. Sims pastor of the Methodist church, which was followed by the salutatory by Earl Dickerson, his subject being, "The Student and His Friends." Rev. W. E. Ellis, of the Christian church, made a beautiful address to the members of the graduating class.

Marmaduke Brown, valedictorian of the class delivered an oration, "The Mission of the Doctor," and Dr. F. L.
Lapsley, secretary of the Board of Education, presented the diplomas.

The members of the graduating class were Earl Dickerson, Marmaduke
Brown, G. C. Thompson, Clara Chambers, Thomas Link, Clarence Harney, Nell Rum-mans, Finnell Galloway and Olive Tucker.

Tuesday afternoon the teachers and pupils of the school held a reception at the school building and the long corridors were crowded with patrons and friends, viewing the very creditable display of hand work exhibited by the teachers to show what had been accomplished during the year, in the way of raffia work, basketry, plain sewing, embroidery, wood-work, drawing, water colors, etc. The exhibit was fully up to the high standard previously attained by the pupils, and reflected credit upon both teachers and children, especially as the time given to such work is limited.

The High School Band furnished music for the occasion, which added greatly to the pleasure of the occasion.

Wednesday evening the annual grammar school commencement was held in the school auditorium, before a large and appreciative audience. The program consisted of music and an allegorical presentation, entitled, "A Vision of Youth."

The commencement exercises will come to a close tonight with the anwill be given in the gymnasium of the school building.

FEARLESS 14-YEAR-OLD THIEF

Nimble Youth Keeps Room in Hotel Facing Station House While He Robs London Homes.

London.—Fourteen charges of shop-breaking and robbery, to all of which he pleaded guilty, were preferred at Nottingham children's court against Charles Goodwin, a rosy-faced Leicestershire boy, aged fourteen, who was described by the police as "a regular Charles Peace." The boy was remanded to a special court for all the charges to be investigated. It was stated that Goodwin in six weeks obtained $250 in the city while living in a hotel facing the chief police station. Able to climb like a cat, Goodwin's method was to break into premises from the roof, and it was while on the roof of a cafe that he was captured. At one shop he removed the slates and bored through rafters and ceiling. The boy was absolutely without fear.

CONVICT IS SEEN TO SMILE

Has Not Spoken in Three Years—Is Under Sentence of Death—His Sanity Doubted.

Stockton, Cal.—"Silent" Carson, the convict, who was brought to this city for investigation by alienists, and who has not been known to utter a word during the three years that he has been under sentence of death for participation in a prison break, is reported to have smiled at one of the hospital attendants, and this may break down the obstacle that has prevented his execution on a charge of murder. Physicians who have had Carson under observation say this is the first display of any emotion on his part of which they have record, and that conclusions heretofore accepted as proving him insane may be reviewed. Carson is being subjected to a new and original system of investigation by several physicians.

BANKER PAYS UP OLD CLAIMS.

Kansas City.—Willard P. Holmes, president of the Security Savings Trust company, when it failed in 1892, has settled all its debts, $63,536. After 21 years he has been able to pay back what depositors lost, refusing to take shelter behind the provisions of the bankruptcy law. As fast as he could earn money he turned it over for dividends on the claims against the dead bank.

Truck Replaced Three Teams

In eleven months this three-ton KisselKar Truck covered in actual service 4,760 miles at a fuel cost of $1.08 per day. Manned by a driver and one helper, it replaced three teams of horses. The average daily burden was 37 17.20ths tons. It carried an average load of four tons—one ton overload—but in the entire period named, was laid up only two and one-half hours for repairs.

"We can recommend the KisselKar Truck and assure that it lives up to its guarantee," writes Thomas E. Fleischer, manager of the Sheboygan Lime Works.

Two and one-half hours for repairs, carrying over 37 tons per day is a record worthy of notice. KisselKar Trucks cost little to maintain and are economical to operate because the problem is solved in KisselKar construction.

Note these striking KisselKar features—Simple engine—easy to operate—reserve power—excess capacity—differential lock preventing one drive wheel absorbing all the power on slippery places, and stalling the truck—four speed transmitters geared up—fourth speed permitting high speed when desired without racing engine; 15 to 20 per cent lower fuel consumption than average trucks—light spring suspension for power plant, heavy spring suspension for load—gauge that weighs load—greatest accessibility—easy control—larger brake drums, and extra powerful brakes—special bodies designed to meet every need.

KisselKar Trucks

1500 lbs.-1-2-3-4 and 5 Tons

In the range of capacity, 1500 lbs. to 5 tons, you can find just the type that fills your requirements—and with the KisselKar Truck goes the KisselKar Service, which is the manufacturer's guarantee of satisfaction.

KisselKar Service means taking off your hands all of the mechanical details. A special service building is maintained in this city for the benefit of KisselKar owners. The KisselKar service is a broad and comprehensive arrangement between manufacturer and owners that cares for the car, maintains efficiency, retards depreciation and minimizes upkeep. This service is a valuable consideration in the purchase of a power wagon. Investigate it.

Ask us to analyze your present horse haulage as compared to motor haulage. The result will be interesting.

DEER HERD IN A STAMPEDE

Hunter Is Supposed to Have Turned Dogs in Inclosure and Started Animals on Wild Career.

St. Louis.—Boon's Lick and other licks in central and eastern Missouri have a fair chance again to come into their own, unless fourteen deer which escaped from the William Meyer farm, near Hollow, in the western part of St. Louis county, are recaptured. A herd of twenty-five denizens of the woods belonging to John Cafferata of Delmar boulevard was stampeded by dogs and all but eleven scaled the fence.

Cafferata and three of his friends have left for Gray Summit, Franklin county, where they hope to form some scheme of capturing some of the herd and returning them to their fold. They have been heard from in many sections, but the owner never hopes to regain all of them.

He received a message from Japan, Mo., twelve miles from Cuba, on the Little Bourbeuse river, that two of his pets had been seen there. Forty miles out in Franklin county more of the deer were seen, and at Labadie and on toward Union, Mo., farmers have sighted some of the flock. Cafferata does not know what method he can employ in capturing them alive if he can find them.

The deer were shipped from a friend in Maryland recently and sent to the Meyer farm for safekeeping, after the fences had been built unusually high. Some former deer hunter, presumably, turned his hounds into the inclosure in order again to feel the thrills of a real buck chase.

One of the animals was tangled in the top wires of the fence as he scaled it and thrown in such a way that its neck was broken. Another broke a hind leg in getting over the fence, and still another was crippled so it cannot travel fast.

For two or three days the deer remained together in the vast acres of almost primeval forests north of Alton and Pacific, but the interference of dogs from neighboring farms is supposed to have scattered them. One of the crippled animals is being held by a farmer near Melrose, in western St. Louis county.

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging

Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave

Up in Despair. Husband

Came to Rescue.

Catron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side."

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good.

I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without tiring me, and am doing all my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of continuous success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.

Life Insurance Applicant Has Six Gunshot Wounds—Once Noted as a Train Robber.

New York.—A modest little man walked into the office of an examining physician for a life insurance company and in a low, timid voice told the doctor he was ready.

The doctor is also small of stature, but wears large spectacles, and sternly looked at his caller as if to say: "Now, don't dodge any of these questions, young fellow. Come right out with the truth." He did.

"Have you any wounds on your body?" asked the M. D.

"Yes, sir; I have six."

"What kind of wounds?"

"Gunshot wounds, sir," replied the timid man, and the doctor's eyes grew larger. Sure enough, there they were.

"Ever have any stomach trouble?"

asked the M. D.

"Only once. I think I'm over that now."

"Where did you contract that?"

"In solitary confinement, sir, after being shot."

"Would you mind telling me your business?" asked the surprised doctor irrelevantly. "This is rather strange."

"I'm a lawyer in Oklahoma City," was the reply. "And have been such for ten years."

"Just one more question," suggested the doctor, who was beginning to wonder at his patient's extreme timidity. "How did you get those wounds?"

"Robbing trains, sir. Is that all you wish?" And he bowed himself out, leaving the M. D. with mouth agape. The doctor then looked at the name on the application, and it was "Al Jennings."

Jennings at one time was one of the most daring train hold-up men in the world, and, upon being pardoned, became one of the best lawyers in Oklahoma.

MAN GETS HOMESTEAD CLAIM

Sacramento Cuts Away From Its Banks and Makes Many Acres of New Land.

Hamilton City, Cal.—Taking advantage of the freaks of the Sacramento river in making land along its course, John P. Ryan, a well-known young civil engineer of Hamilton City, will in a few years become possessor of 160 acres of the finest land in California, as he has filed a homestead on 160 acres at Packer Island, in the river, a short distance south of Butte City.

The Mexican government made the west bank of the Sacramento river the eastern boundary of the Larkins grant. At that time there was a channel around Packer Island which filled up on the west side as the years went by and the island became a part of the Larkins grant. The land on the opposite side of the river was surveyed and the island was not included. The owners of the Larkins grant claimed the island and their right was not disputed.

As Ryan has notified the other owners on the island, there are no more lucky acres to be obtained by home-steading.

DENIED RELIEF OF WEEPING

Peculiar Fact Concerning the Insane is That They Are Positively Unable to Cry.

One of the most curious facts connected with madness is the utter absence of tears amid the insane. Whatever the form of madness, tears are conspicuous by their absence, as much in the depression of melancholy, or excitement of mania, as in the utter apathy of dementia.

A patient in a lunatic asylum be discovered in tears, it will be found that it is one beginning to recover, or an emotional outbreak in an epileptic who is scarcely truly insane, while actual insane persons appear to have lost the power of weeping; it is only returning reason which can once more unloose the fountain of their tears.

Even when a lunatic is telling one in fervid language how she has been deprived of her children, or the outrages that have been perpetrated to herself, her eye is never moist. The ready gush of tears which accompanies the plaint of the sane woman contrasts strangely with the dry-eyed appeal of the talkative lunatic. It would, indeed, seem that tears give relief to feelings which, when pent up, lead to madness. It is one of the privileges of reason to be able to weep. Amid all the misery of the insane find no relief in tears.

Believer in Eugenics.

Believers in the vital importance to the race of more careful mating of the sexes argue that not more than 1 per cent. of the men of any generation can be called distinguished or especially gifted. They say that of this little minority of one in every hundred at least half are the children of parents one or both of whom have unquestionable eminence in some field or endeavor, or are otherwise lifted above the powers and gifts of average men. That leaves half of the notably endowed men of the world to spring from the great mass of ordinary human beings. If these figures are correct it follows that the children of distinguished parents have about one hundred times as good a chance of winning fame or proving great powers as the children of the commonplace majority.

What "Canard" Means.

This is the published story explaining the origin of the word:

"A man made a statement in the newspapers that he owned 20 ducks. He cut up one and fed it to the remaining 19; he then cut up a second, then a third and so on, until but one remained. It, therefore, must have eaten the other 19."

This story was so absurd that it attracted attention and was copied from the French papers to those of other countries.

They bore the name "canard" (duck).

Mickle for Mick.

Finnegan, newly come over, had just stepped off a train at the railroad station, and was confronted with a spectacle that caused him to wonder. The sight he saw was a train, and the cars were labelled on the sides "Michigan." He looked and the name so, Mich-igan. Finnegan repeated the name on each car until the last.

"Well, he done foine," he said admiringly. "I knew Mich Egan whin he was pushin' a cart in the ould country."

"No wagon made is subjected to as many tests or is more carefully made than a Studebaker. You can buy them of Studebaker dealers everywhere."

NEWS OF MILLERSBURG

The commencement exercises of the M. M. I. were continued Monday morning at 9 o'clock by the competitive drill on the college campus. The cadets were greeted by the largest crowd in the history of the institution. The work was well done and was a decided improvement over that of the past few years.

The medal in the manual of arms was won by Cadet John Letton, of Millersburg, who was also one of the graduates, and has accepted a position as clerk in the post office to succeed Miss Nancy Whaley, entering upon his duties June 15. Company B carries the flag again next year, making two consecutive years that it has shone this honor. The judges were C. Miller, of Lexington, Can. of Georgetown, and Kemper, of Millersburg.

Monday evening a minstrel performance was given by the old cadets. The cast was made up of about fourteen characters, all of whom were good. It was a remarkable entertainment, inasmuch as the cast reside in various places and states and had never given a full rehearsal. Many of them did not arrive until Monday.

The commencement exercises took place Tuesday at 10 o'clock, at the drill hall. A large audience was in attendance, quite an additional number of old cadets having arrived for the day. At the appointed time the class of 1913, headed by Col. C. M. Best, took their places on the stage. The address to the class was delivered by Dr. Gilbert, of Cincinnati, his subject being "Good Citizenship." An excellent musical program was rendered. At the close of this part of the program, Col. Best awarded the diploma s and read the honor roll. Cadet Brewer, of Harrodsburg was first for honors, and cadet Huffman, of Millersburg, was second.

Immediately after the program of old cadets was opened, with ex-cadet J. P. Redmon, president, and F. J. Savage, of Paris, secretary, of the alumni, present. Short addresses were delivered by Judge Dennis Dundon, of Paris, Rev. J. D. Redd, of Millersburg, and Cecil Cantrell, of Georgetown.

nine members a recess of an hour was by Mr. Ora E. Hurst, of Millersburg, which was exceedingly good, and carried one back to that time of uncertainty between the old K. W. C. and M. M. I., a time when education for young men in Millersburg seemed to hang in the balance. The response was to have been delivered by Graham B. Smedley, Assistant Attorney-General of Texas, but owing to his absence his paper was read by Dr. I. B. Best, of Cynthia.

At the close of the exercises a bountiful basket dinner was served on the grounds to about 500 people. The most eventful feature of the commencement exercises to the society people of the town and community was the cotillion Tuesday evening. It was the first entertainment of the kind ever given in Millersburg, and had been looked forward to some weeks with much pleasure. The spacious drill hall was appropriately decorated in military style, the gowns of the ladies were handsome and exquisite, many of them created for this special occasion. The music was furnished by Saxton & Trost, of Lexington. The early part of the evening was spent in program dances. After

Mrs. W. G. Dailey was taken to St.

taken, at which time everybody repaired to the spacious dining hall in the main building, which was beautifully decorated in cut flowers.

About midnight the cotillion was opened. The grand march was beautiful. The favors were bonnets for the ladies and chauffeur's caps for the gentlemen. There were about fourteen figures and a favor was given to each figure. It was unquestion-ably the most elaborate event of its kind ever given here.

The following is a partial list of the commencement visitors: Miss Martha Dudley, of Carlisle, with Mrs. Letton Vimont; Miss Matilda James, of Paris, with Mrs. J. P. Redmon; Miss Elizabeth Liter, of Paris, with Mrs. A. T. Maffett; Miss Elizabeth Brown, of Sharpsburg, with the Misses Clark; Mr. William Peed, of Lexington, with Mr. J. J. Peed and family; Mrs. Alice Beat and Mr. Reuben Hutchcraft, of Paris, Mrs. Clifton Dalzell, Miss Nettie Dalzell, Master Edward Dalzell, Shirley Dalzell and Elgin Dalzell, Misses Mary Belle Wyatt, Frankie, Florence and Ollie Hopkins, of North Middle, town, with Mrs. Minnie C. Since then he has been on a steady decline. He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Mann, and was born near Blue Licks, in Nicholas county. His parents moved to Millersburg with a family of four children, when Mr. Mann was quite young, all of whom have preceded him to the grave. He was a brother of the late Judge Russell Mann, of Paris, Mr. Garrett Mann, and one sister, Miss Mary Mann, of Millersburg. The funeral took place Thursday at 3 p. m., at his late residence, Rev. J. D. Redd, pastor of the Methodist church, officiating. Interment in the Millersburg cemetery.

The chicken business does not fail. It is the individual who fails. Teachers fail in the teaching business; preachers fail in the preaching business; lawyers fail at law, and doctors at medicine. Poultry raisers too fail. But the poultry business keeps on forever, and forever will. It offers big premiums to patience, industry, study.

Graves of Confederates Decorated.

In commemoration of the birth of Jefferson Davis, President of the Southern Confederacy, and in memory of the dead who wore the gray, now sleeping beneath the sod of the place of their nativity, appropriate exercises attended the decoration of the graves in the Paris cemetery on Tuesday afternoon.

A large number attended the exercises, which were held under the auspices of the Richard Hawes Chapter United Daughters of the Confederacy. Grouped around the Confederate monument, which marks the last resting place of the gallant men who fought for the Southland, the assemblage paid solemn reverence to the departed and the graves were strewed with the most beautiful flowers.

The address of the occasion was delivered by Rev. E. M. Lightfoot, pastor of the Paris Baptist Church, a Southerner by birth, who spoke of the Southland, and paid a glowing tribute to the brave sons and loyal daughters. Crosses of honor were bestowed upon Mrs. Theresa Hibler and Mr. William Goodloe, of this city, by Mrs. Amos Turney, president of the U. D. C., after reading the rules governing their bestowal.

Interesting exercises were held by the Hamilton Guards, whose sweet, childish voices sang, "My Old Kentucky Home" and "Dixie."

A sketch of Jefferson Davis was read by Louise Connell, little Elizabeth Stuart Carter sang "A Southern Girl," and recitations were made by Anne Thomas and Josephine Hedges Ewalt, the attractive daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ewalt.

Given Life Sentence.

A life sentence was the verdict of the jury in the case of the Commonwealth against Sam Johnson, colored, in the Harrison Circuit Court Tuesday. The jury deliberated only an hour before determining on the verdict. Johnson killed Stewart in Cynthiana on March 25.

Will Open Cooking School.

Miss Jennie Howard, of this city, will begin a cooking class June 10, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Taylor Chandler, which is designed especially for the beneficiaries of the Hamilton Fund, who are obliged to take a course of instruction in housekeeping, this being a special condition of the will of the late Col. John Hamilton, who left a handsome fund for the education of the worthy Bourbon county girls.
